EXPERIENCE

Marina Capatana exhibition "Debut" | 26th of June 2023

Art on Edge - 1st edition of the exhibition | Aug. 2023

Best supporting actress - I.L. Caragiale Highschool | May 2023

Lexy - personal project | Nov. 2021 - Jan. 2023

Started as a personal challenge - creating a set of mugs for a group of people, based on how they defined their friendship. I have further developed this project due to the increasing demand for products. I have delivered over 50 orders. I have worked with special ceramic paint and markers.

Freelancing projects | 2020 - ongoing

I created and successfully sold custom items, such as painted clothes, event banners and posters, Christmas gifts and home design artworks.

Custom Stagewear — Marlene | march - june 2026

Designed and constructed a custom stage outfit for Dutch singer Marlene for her concert in the Netherlands, marking the opening of her tour with a 42-piece orchestra and personal live band. The garment was created entirely from vintage denim, transforming the requested recycled materials into a distinctive, performance-ready stage piece. Managed the design and garment-making process from concept to final construction, with attention to silhouette, material manipulation, craftsmanship, and the practical demands of live performance.

National Cathedral of Romania | summer 2026

I worked on the construction site of the Patriarchal catacombs of the National Cathedral (the biggest orthodox church in the world), as part of the painting team for the large scale artistic project.

VOLUNTEERING

Art Safari | Feb. 2023 - May 2023

Art Safari is an annual art event, which gives the opportunity for students to step into the art world and see what it's like working in a museum, helping out and guiding tourists, maintaining the proper atmosphere and safety of the artworks, but also having the chance of seeing the exhibitions behind curtains.

Participation in "Race for the Cure" raising funds marathon for women with cancer | Aug. 2021

ESN Groningen crew member for the Introduction Week | Aug-Sep 2025

Contributed to the organization and planning of ESN introductory events, supporting event coordination and on-site operations, including bartending and guest service.
